Kiro

FEATURES

- Steel tube frame with foot rest finished in Black powdercoat
- Easy clean, polypropylene sculpted seat
- Padded seat option upholstered in Reef Walnut or Charcoal
- Pair with Cubit, Polo, Ligna or Metallum bar leaners

Kiro is a refined barstool designed to bring comfort and clarity to elevated seating spaces. Its gently contoured shell with an upholstered seat pad provides a supportive, inviting sit, while the slim sled base and integrated footrest offer stability without adding visual weight. Well suited to breakout areas, cafés, and collaborative zones, Kiro delivers a balanced combination of comfort, durability, and understated style for everyday use.
