Kove

FEATURES

- 19mm Steel sled frame in Black powdercoat with non-slip glides
- Tub shaped back and sides
- High density foam
- Upholstered in Reef Walnut or Charcoal for quickship

Kove is a contemporary visitor chair designed to bring comfort and softness into meeting and reception spaces. With its gently curved, fully upholstered shell and supportive seat, it offers an inviting place to sit while maintaining a clean, refined look. The sled base provides stability and a light visual footprint, making Kove a practical choice for spaces that need to feel both welcoming and well considered.
